PANTOMIME NEWS

Readings for this year's Panto, I didn't do it 'onest, begin July 4th at 7.30pm in the ORC Pavilion – casting will be Tuesday 18th July. This panto, cleverly written by Stubby, has a great script with of songs and dances for chorus (children and adult) and some lovely cameo and main character roles. Please let all your friends and families know - it would be just great to welcome them. For more information call Stubby on 770753.

Return to the Forbidden Planet

Congratulations to all of the cast, crew, musicians and not forgetting the directors, David and Mark, on what we have classified as our BIGGEST show to date. Have fun and if you are coming to see us – ENJOY!

Social updates and dates for your diary

A BIG thank you to Tina for organising our 10-pin Bowling Trip, it was a fabulous night. The caption competition photo was taken at this event, watch out for more photos on the website....

BBQ and Walking Treasure Hunt. Saturday 30th July. The walking treasure hunt was brilliant and really educational last year. Start at 2pm from The Old House and we aim to finish at St Mary's Hall Garden for a BBQ. Please invite your family, neighbours, friends and bring your own meats and drinks and we'll provide the rest...!

The Great Overton Duck Race. Monday 28th August. Ducks will be on sale in the village in the very near future. Please come and enjoy an afternoon of fantastic races starting at 12-noon until 5pm at Flashetts. BBQ and refreshments will be on sale as well as, we hope, ice creams and some stalls for additional attractions.

Taken at the our social event 10-pin bowling Caption Competition - Prize for the winner

Place your answers on the back of the flats during show week. Jean and Liz will choose the winner at the after show party.

Good luck.
