Readings 19th and 21st June
 Auditions 26th, 28th June & 3rd, 5th July
 Further details from Show Sec. Julia ~ 771492

Show Dates 27th Nov to the 1st Dec

Social events for your diaries

Walking Treasure Hunt & BBQ ~ Sunday 1st July ~ £2 (£1 children) ~ ALL WELCOME ~ bring your own food and drinks ~ 2:00 pm from and finishing back to SMH garden for the BBQ (route suitable for all)

Robin Hood Festival. Saturday 4th Aug. In preparation for our Panto "Babes in the Wood" we are going to the Robin Hood Festival in Nottingham. More details will be available at the show readings ~ keep this date free.

Summer Beer Bus ~ and so much more to follow ~ any ideas you may have to the committee please

We agreed at the AGM rather than increase subs significantly the new committee would look at the options for covering the increase in ORC hiring costs ~ there will be some small ongoing type fund raisers coming up but from now on teas/coffees at rehearsals will be 40p a cup.
Subs are now Due and required if you want to participate in this or any production - to Lesley please.

Sheep Fair 2008

Have your say

At our AGM Chris Penney from the Sheepfair 2008 Committee, spoke about the need for a theme for the Sheepfair next year and would really appreciate our input. Here are a few ideas that we would like you to vote on. Please submit your choice to me, Jim, at the first panto readings (19th & 21st June). We will announce the winner on 28th June.

- Regency i.e. Jane Austen era (1788-1830)
- Elizabethan Sheep Fair (1558-1603)
- The Swinging 60s (1960-1969)
- Tudor (1485-1603)
- Edwardian (1901-1910)

A big thank you to all involved

The Family Games & Quiz Night. On Sat 12th May, raised £300 will be going to the Testbourne Mityana Project ~ split 3 ways between John Blunden / Rebekah Sims / Group Funding ~ Special thanks to Stubby and Dave for all their hard work on this event AND BAOS v ODS Quiz. Great time had by all ~ well done team McLaren in coming in first.
